

NADFAS. On the third Friday during the past 18 months you may have come across a team of people busy making a record of items in the church. These are from the National Association of Decorative and Fine Arts (Beaconsfield and Gerrards Cross Branch). In an email of 23.08.16. Archdeacon Guy Elsmore commented 'NADFAS is an organisation with a great reputation for the work they do in recording parish artefacts... NADFAS work with the greatest care and courtesy and I can think of no reason for caution or concern', He also said 'As with any project involving 'outsiders' the key is communication, throughout the process.' With this in mind, below is brief update from Gillian Russell one of the two organisers. 'The recording of the all the furnishings and fittings within the church is progressing well. No section is completed yet and I anticipate that we will take another year of work in the church and then there will be several months of checking and editing before we complete the record. The group is very much enjoying working in your church it has such a warm and loving atmosphere.' Small Groups 4u We have had a great term with small groups including Alpha, healthy cooking, craft and studying Revelations. We now need to start planning for the Spring term which will start in the New Year. So please think and pray about ideas you might have for a small group. We would particularly like to increase the range of activity-based groups. If you would like to talk through an idea or have an idea but are unsure about leading a group then do contact the small group leadership team. So we can get things ready for next term before Christmas we need submissions for groups by 4th December. For a form or if you have any questions please email smallgroups@4u-team.org.

#GodWithUs In the build up to Christmas the Church of England has launched a scheme #GodWithUs to promote going to church this Christmas and reflecting on the good news of God coming to be with us. There will be a series of videos on social media (filmed at All Saints, Wycombe) and reflections that you can receive by email or text. Do have a look and share with others. For info go to www.churchofengland.org/Christmas or text GODWITHUS to 88802
